A NNE GREY.—A Novel, by the Author of "Grarby," "Jane Shore," "The Jew's Daughter," &c.

Some time since we published Jane Shore, and as an historical novel, it has seldom had its equal in popularity. We calls for Anne Grey the same excellent qualities. Albeit, the subject belongs to modern times and discourses of modern so lety, all the fine touches of an imaginative pen, combited with massively portraiture, are to be found in the present work. Its blemishes, if any there be, it would take a most fastidious critic to discover; while its characters and developments will cheer and entiren noth the gay and the soher.

Important Work.

Library Committee of Congress. The work will be completed in seven volumes octavo; the contents of which will be as follows:

Volume I comprises the correspondence of Hamilton prior to the establishment of the present Government from 1785 to 1783.

Volume II combraces the residue of the writings of this period; a series very essential to a correct knowledge of our early pointed history.

Volume III contains the papers which relate to the organization and conduct of the fixed department of our Gevernment, its revenues and public credit.

Volume IV. will include the period from 1789 to 1795, embodying the papers designated as "Gabinet Papers," comprehending the roost important part of Washington's Administration.

Volume V will be devoted to other official writings, not coming within the previous ceseription.

The two remaining volumes will give the correspondence subsequent to the year 1769, and an accurate series of political papers of great and issuing value.

An edition of the works of this distinguished statesman has long some an edget of machins drain. As the statesman, the diplomatiat, the politician, the student of history, and the general reader, they will prove invaluable, and to public and private libraricajan indispensable sidition. They are now presented by us to the public, chefly urinised from MSS purchased by Congress, under the direction of the Joint Efforty Correntine. They have not been stereotyped, and only five hundred copies have been printed for sale; an early application will increfere be necessary to secure copies. The Publishers will receive orders from subscribers at $2.25 per volume. The work is handsomely printed and hound in cloth. When completed the price will be raised to $2.00 or $17.50 the set.

DR. CHILTON'S NEW MAGNETOLECTRIC MACHINES For Medical Application.

These instruments possess great advantages over all others for medical use, the shocks being obtained en irely from permanent magnets, and the mechacism is so arranged as to cause the current of induced electricity to pass in any direction, at the will of the operator. They sequire no galvanic battery to put them in scoton, and consequently there is no need of acids or other liquids so objectionable in the little now insise. They are always reasy for immediate application, and are in no wise liable to get out, of order. All that is necessary to put the instrument in action is simply to turn a small shadle, which could be done by a shill or even in many cause by the patients themselves.

They are put up in a portable form, being secured in next cases, from which they do not require to be removed. For sale, with the necessary directions for use, at Dr. CHILTON'S Chemical Warerooms, 83 Chambers-st. N.Y. 22 km²
